ABOUT THE COURSE: Using specifically designed wax, we teach you how to perform this ever increasingly popular treatment. Using this wax with a gentle formula you will learn how to remove even the coarsest hair in sensitive areas. No muslin or paper strips are necessary. You will also be introduced to the techniques of 'pubic topiary'.

There are two workshops available, male and female. You must be an experienced waxer to attend this workshop – models are provided.

*Please note FHT do not insure this treatment.

The content of the course is as follows:

- Types of waxing terminology and their explanation of terms.
- Considerations, contra indications and safety measures
- Equipment & materials to be used
- Treatment positioning and treatment technique
- Consultation & after care techniques
- How to market the treatment and charging advice
- How to use clippers (if you have clippers that you would like to bring you may)

Models will be provided however it is recommended you experience this treatment.

Please bring a pen/pencil and paper, tweezers and clippers if you have them.

Students should also bring their own lunch.

Smoking is not permitted throughout this training day

Because treatments will be undertaken, normal standards of cleanliness will be expected, including short fingernails and professional work wear.

It should be noted that there will be a quiz based on information included within the course work notes.

A certificate will be issued at the end of the day as long as proficient waxing technique is demonstrated.
